

Sri Guru Harkrishan Sr. Sec. Public School (Chief Khalsa Diwan ) Chabhal

School Profile

“Education is the Process of learning ,acquiring the knowledge and sharing the knowledge “.

According to the maxim of “Education is considered philanthropic “, education can only be philanthropic if with the help of it the ability to think and awareness is created and with the help of it man can also earn his livelihood and guide people to the path of life and philanthropy .Education is the third eye of man and its foundation is laid in schools . Accordingly the Chief Khalsa Diwan ,the foremost educational institution of the Sikh community ,felt the need to open a temple of education to provide quality education to the children in the border and rural areas. And along with this special emphasis is laid on an all-round development of children.

Keeping in view the above facts ,on 26th April 1995 Sri Guru Harkrishan Senior Secondary Public School Chabhal was established with 9 students in an area of 3 acres . This school under the smooth and able guidance of various members incharge has been able to come up at the level of one of the best institutions of the area. In which 103 diligent and experienced teachers are teaching 2260 students with dedication and sincerity . Moreover the school is providing an atmosphere that works as a catalyst in making each child a balanced human being having its core strength embedded in the learning experience emanating from our rich- socio culture roots.

Building Infrastructure:-A marvel of modern architecture ,the building contains well –lit airy classrooms ,spacious playground and beautifully landscaped lawns.
