Nature's Enigma

What is nature, so vast and grand?
More beautiful than we understand.
What is nature, a mystery Deep?
Secrets in its heart we keep.
In the forests where shadows sway,
What secrets does the Twilight play?
Beneath the boughs, whispers unfold,
Is it magic or a tale re-told?
The zephyrs whisper through the trees,
Softly rustling the leaves,
Stars above the silent grace,
Reflect a hidden, a gentle embrace.
Rivers murmur ancient love,
Do they speak of hearts forever more.
Mountains stand silent and grand,
Guardians of this time less land!

THE STARRY NIGHT

Every night when I see the sky,
I get a thought of that starry night..
Before which the sky flushed with pink light, as if it was shy when the sky was clear I saw the stars that brightened the moon's atmosphere
Sitting on the wall I stare,
the light that the stars share.
A light breeze came with a whisper.
Which made me think it was a lisper
When I see the glistening stars at a height,
I get a thought of that starry night..

India, My Motherland!

The golden bird,
The granary of the world!
The land of great men!
Who work hard now and then..
But I don't know how the wind changed? And my pride, my country was flamed!
In competing the world we forgot to remain United. Now, we are the torch-bearers and there is no room for errors.
Life is challenging
And we are no less in managing.
I promise to serve my nation
With full power and dedication.
India is a beautiful name
And making it great is going to be my aim!

Time: The Most Precious of All.

Time is something precious don't waste it ever, but one who misses this opportunity finds the success never. The clock goes tick-tock time runs fast, Learn, Learn!
Never stop! Gain knowledge vast. Time is of single use, So don't ever waste it, but one who wastes it surely has to pay for it.
